

Hickok & Boardman
HR INTELLIGENCE

Useful Links to Outside Agencies

The U.S. Department of Labor \(DOL\) is committed to providing America's workers, employers, job seekers, and retirees — with clear and easy-to-access information on how to comply with federal employment laws.

VT's Department of Labor's primary focus is to provide services that assist businesses, workers, and job seekers.

The Federal Internal Revenue Service \(IRS\) provides taxpayers and employers up to date information on tax related news and events, forms and regulations.

VT's Department of Taxes provides taxpayers and employers in the State of VT up to date information on tax related news and events, forms and regulations.

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is responsible for enforcing federal laws that make it illegal to discriminate against a job applicant or an employee because of the person's race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information.

The Civil Rights Unit of The Attorney General's Office in the State of VT is responsible for enforcing state laws which prohibit discrimination in employment. These include laws which prohibit discrimination based on race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, place of birth, age, handicap, HIV status, or for asserting a claim to worker's compensation, and laws which prohibit retaliation against any person who makes a claim of discrimination.